Vorwort.

Die vorliegende Arbeit gibt in ihrem ersten Teile eine Zusammenstellung der von Panzer in seinen lateinischen Annalen aufgeführten Drucke des 15. Jahrhunderts mit einem Hinweis auf die späteren Bibliographen. Bekanntlich ordnet Panzer das Material nach Druckstädten, innerhalb der Druckstädte nach den Jahren und innerhalb der Jahre nach der Zeitfolge der Offizinen. Den mit Jahreszahlen versehenen Drucken folgen in einem besonderen Abschnitte die Drucke ohne Angabe des Jahres. Die Titel innerhalb einer Druckstadt sind laufend durchnumeriert; die in den Supplementen neu dazugekommenen Drucke sind mit Exponenten dazwischen geordnet. Aus Bequemlichkeitsgründen für den Benutzer habe ich die in den Supplementen enthaltenen Nummern nicht zwischen die Nummern des Hauptwerkes eingeordnet, sondern bin dem Werke Panzers gefolgt. Wer sich über den Bestand von Drucken einer Stadt bei Panzer unterrichten will, findet auf S. 212 bis 214 ein Ortsregister mit dem Hinweis auf die Seitenzahlen meiner Konkordanz. Die bei Panzer gegebenen Kapitelüberschriften, d. h. die Städtenamen, habe ich in Panzers Wortlaut wiedergegeben, in meinem Ortsregister aber auch die heute üblichen Namen dazugesetzt. Es war das notwendig, da sich sonst Mißverständnisse hätten einstellen können. Das Zitat P. I. 2. 1. kann drei Drucke bezeichnen, P. I. 5. 1. zwei Drucke usw. Ich habe alle bei Panzer verzeichneten Drucke mit den Beschreibungen bei den späteren Bibliographen zu identifizieren versucht. Das war nicht schwierig bei datierten, genau erkennbar von Panzer beschriebenen Drucken, wohl aber bei den Drucken absque ulla nota, bei denen eine Identifikation manchmal nicht möglich war, namentlich wo es sich um oftmals gedruckte Werke handelt. Bei dieser Identifikation ist immer auf Hain, Copinger, Pellechet, Proctor, bei den Niederländern außerdem auf Campbell, bei den Kölnern auf Voulliéme, bei den Spaniern auf Häbler verwiesen worden. Bei den von späteren Bibliographen nicht erwähnten Drucken habe ich den Titel kurz angegeben. Vielfach sind es Drucke, die Panzer selbst schon für apokryph gehalten hat, und die Hain deshalb nicht mit in sein Repertorium aufgenommen hat. Panzer hat die Quellen, aus denen er geschöpft hat, bei jedem Titel angegeben und die Bibliotheken aufgezählt, in denen sich der betreffende Druck vorfinden soll. Außer einer großen Zahl von gedruckten Werken aller Art hat er seine eigene reiche Bibliothek, die Privatsammlungen vieler Freunde und die öffentlichen Bibliotheken namentlich Nürnbergs benutzt, ferner auch handschriftliche Kataloge von vielen öffentlichen und Klosterbibliotheken. Daß dies ganze so verschiedenartige und in seinem Werte ungleiche Material Veranlassung zu manchen Irrtümern hat geben müssen, ist einleuchtend. Als klassisches Beispiel mag dafür der handschriftliche Katalog des Klosters Lilienfeld dienen, den P. Chrysostomus Hanthaler mit einer Reihe von Drucken geschmückt hat, die er sich aus den Fingern gesogen hat. Die ganze Druckertätigkeit des Straßburger Druckers Martin Flach in seinen ersten Jahren beruht auf diesen Erfindungen Pater Hanthalers, eine Tatsache, die dem Verfasser des Répertoire bibliographique Straßbourgeois Charles Schmidt vollständig entgangen ist, obgleich Panzer an einer Stelle die Unzuverlässigkeit des aus Lilienfeld stammenden Materials brandmarkt. Aber Charles Schmidt darf wohl kein allzu großer Vorwurf gemacht werden, da er sich hierbei ganz auf Hain verlassen und die Quellen Hains nicht weiter nachgeprüft hat. Diese aus Lilienfeld stammenden Titel habe ich mit einem Hinweise auf ihre Provenienz (aus Lilienfeld! oder ähnlich) versehen und dadurch als apokryph bezeichnet. Daß ferner die Druck- und Schreibfehler des Panzer vorliegenden Materials manchen Irrtum hervorgerufen haben, beweist namentlich der Katalog Thott, den wir an der Hand von Bøllings Werk kontrollieren können. Drucke, die bei Thott vorkommen und bei Bølling fehlen, kann man wohl von vornherein für apokryph halten, namentlich wenn sie nicht von anderer Seite als vorhanden bezeugt werden. Wird eine Nummer von Panzer an einer andern Stelle in einem oder mehreren der Supplemente noch einmal erwähnt oder genauer beschrieben, so ist immer darauf verwiesen worden, und umgekehrt von der Nummer im Supplement auf das Hauptwerk.

In ähnlicher Weise habe ich die deutschen Annalen Panzers, soweit sie Drucke des 15. Jahrhunderts enthalten, behandelt. Panzer hat hier das Material anders angeordnet. Er hat die Drucke ohne Anzeige des Druckjahres an die Spitze gestellt, dann folgen die Drucke mit der Angabe des Druckjahres nach Jahren geordnet. Innerhalb des Druckjahres sind die Titel nicht nach Offizinen, sondern nach dem Inhalt (Theologie, Jurisprudenz, Medizin, Varia) geordnet. Bei dem geringen Umfange habe ich die in den Zusätzen gegebenen Nummern in die Nummern des Hauptwerkes eingeordnet.

Bei dem noch immer unentbehrlichen Repertorium Hains muß man zwei Bestandteile streng scheiden, die von ihm selbst in der Hof- und Staatsbibliothek in München beschriebenen und mit einem Sternchen versehenen Drucke und die aus den Werken anderer Bibliographen übernommenen Zitate. Leider hat Hain selbst nirgends Quellen angegeben, nur einige Male zitiert er Dibdin. Es ist mir deshalb auch nicht möglich gewesen, in allen Fällen Hains Quelle ausfindig zu machen, namentlich da er auch einzelne Beschreibungen von Drucken, die auf anderen Bibliotheken aufbewahrt werden, gelegentlich mit aufgenommen hat. Bei den Hain-Nummern habe ich außer Panzer, Pellechet, Proctor, außer den obengenannten Spezialbibliographien von Campbell, Häbler, Voulliéme, die im Anhange aufgeführten und eine Reihe anderer leicht erkennbarer Werke (wie z. B. Goetze, Madan, Macfarlane, Schorbach-Spirgatis, Thierry-Poux usw.) zitiert. Noch in letzter Stunde konnte ich vor der Drucklegung meines Manuskriptes das Buch von Voulliéme, die Inkunabeln der Kgl. Bibliothek und der anderen Berliner Sammlungen benutzen und in mein Manuskript übertragen. Daher erklärt sich die Ungleichmäßigkeit der Zitate VB. und Voull. Auch hier ist es mein Bestreben gewesen, etwaige apokryphe Drucke als solche nachzuweisen, Teile von Drucken, die selbständig zitiert werden, als solche unter Hinweis auf die Nummer, zu der sie gehören, festzustellen, bei Drucken, die erst nach 1500 erschienen sind, womöglich das Druckjahr zu ermitteln usw., soweit es möglich ist, eine solche Arbeit ohne Einsicht in die Bücher selbst zu machen.

Daß bei einer so umfangreichen, nur aus Zitaten bestehenden Arbeit trotz der Sorgfalt, die ich auf die Herstellung des Manuskripts verwendet habe, und trotz der ganz vortrefflichen Leistung der Firma Oscar Brandstetter, die den Druck besorgt hat, sich Druckfehler finden werden, wird verzeihen, wer jemals ähnliche Arbeiten gemacht hat.
